The first question was how does the teacher implementation of language experience approach in online class, in this research there were some steps of teaching writing recount text but the teacher only implemented 2 steps of teaching writing recount text and there were some steps of language experience approach but the the teacher only implemented 4 steps and the teacher modify the last step of language experience approach.

The second questions was what are the problems encountered by English teacher in teaching writing recount text by using language experience approach, the teacher and the reseacher found some problems. There were 6 problems in 2 meetings of implemented language experience approach. The problems came from the teacher and the students. The third question was how does the English teacher solve the problems in teaching writing recount text by using language experience approach, when the teacher found problems, she directly applied the problem solving and sometimes the teacher helped by the class guardian to solve the problem.

1.2. Suggestion

After the researcher made a conclusion. The researcher tried to make some suggestions, especially to the teacher as a person whose concern is focused in teaching learning process in the classroom, the suggestions are follows:

1. The teacher, especially English teacher should be more use new method to teaching writing because if the teacher monotone use the same method in teaching writing, the students will bored and they can not enjoy to study about writing. Language experience approach is one of the method, it is implemented in the teaching writing to help the students to explore their idea when they are lacking the idea.
2. The students by using language experience approach it should encourage the students to be more active, creative, and confident. So that they can express their idea when they write a text.
3. The researcher, the result of this study can be used as reference to the further researcher and it is one of the method can be used to help the students explore their writing.
